About the Presenter

Ms. Robin Kohn, MSW, LCSW is the BSW Program Director & Associate Instructor at the University of Central Florida where she teaches primarily the practice courses. Prior to academia, she specialized in rehabilitation of individuals with neurological and/or physical injuries and disabilities. Her specialty area continues to be health and disabilities. Her interest areas are varied including ethical practice, maintaining boundaries, strengths perspective, end-of-life care, bereavement and grief, and disability.

Ms. Kohn assists in educating professionals about disability and consults with agencies in order to provide services for persons with varying abilities and disabilities. Over the last several years, she has been conducting training related to ethical practice, boundaries and supervision. She has presented on a number of topics including "Professional Relationships, Boundaries, and Ethics."

Ms. Kohn is a member of many professional organizations and is the Chair of the Committee on Disabilities and Persons with Disabilities for the Association of Baccalaureate Social Work Program Directors and was appointed to the Council on Disability through the Council on Social Work Education.

She earned her MSW from Florida State University and is licensed in the State of Florida.
